

CALL FOR PAPERS

Virtual International Conference JULY 21 & 22, 2022

90 YEARS OF DONOGHUE V. STEVENSON: DEVELOPMENTS AND PROSPECTS

Next year, 2022, will be 90 years since the pivotal decision in the landmark case of Donoghue v. Stevenson. In commemoration, the Ghana Institute of Advanced Legal Studies (GIALS) invites scholars and researchers to submit abstracts and papers on topics relating to developments in the law of negligence in any of the thematic areas listed below:

THEMATIC AREAS:

- Negligence – doctrinal development and prospects
- Negligence and Labour law/Industrial relations
- Negligence and Climate change/Global warming/Environment
- Negligence and COVID 19/Pandemic management and control
- Negligence in the context of the SDGs
- Negligence and financial crises (global or domestic)
- Negligence and Gender/Poverty/Children/Women
- Negligence and Cyber-crime/Artificial Intelligence/Computer hardware and software
- Negligence and Policing/Human and Community development

While the above are the general thematic areas, they are not intended to be exhaustive, and scholars and researchers who are undertaking research in other areas may suggest these other areas to the scientific committee of GIALS for consideration.

DATES TO NOTE:

- Call for abstracts – open on September 1, 2021
- Deadline for the submission of abstracts – November 14, 2021
- Notification of acceptance/rejection of abstracts – December 14, 2021

HOW TO SUBMIT AN ABSTRACT:

All abstracts must be submitted to the following email – gialsnegligenceconference@gmail.com

Kindly, note the following guidelines. Abstracts, not exceeding 300 words, must be in English, and must be preceded by the following information

- Title. Provide a clear, concise and representative title of the study.
- Authors. List the authors (First name, Middle name or initial & Last Name)
- Presenting author. Where there are two or more authors, indicate clearly which author will be in charge of the presentation. Kindly note that where there are more than two authors, only two authors will be allowed to present.
- Affiliations. Indicate the affiliations of the authors as follows (Department, Institution, City & Country).
- Contact. Provide a contact email address of the submitting author.
- Keywords. Please provide a list of up to five keywords in alphabetical order. Select those keywords that can help classifying your study.
- Consents. Where there are two or more authors, it is the responsibility of the submitting author to ensure that all co-authors have given their consent, and have approved the submission of the abstract. A signed consent must accompany the submission of the abstract.